

Event	Time and Place	Description/ Directions	Group size RSVP Entry fee.	Difficulty
Santa Fe Rail Trail Easy Hike	Date: April 11, 2015 Time: 9:30 a.m. – 11 a.m. Santa Fe Rail Trail – Rabbit Road trail head.	The 17-mile Santa Fe Rail Trail follows the old Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway line, beginning in the Railyard park in town and continuing along the tracks to Highway 285 through El Dorado to Lamy. This there and out hike will begin at the Rabbit Road Trail head and continue on to the Spur Trail connection where participants will turn around and head back to Rabbit Road. Directions South on S. St. Francis Drive until you pass under I-25. Take a right heading west on Rabbit Road and follow for about a half-mile until you reach the railroad tracks and a small parking lot on the left.	No RSVP No fee	Easy hike. Approximately 4 miles round trip
El Camino Real Park River Trail Walk	Date: May 2, 2015 Time: 9:30 am -10:30 am El Camino Real Park – Parking lot located at the end of Constellation Drive.	El Camino Real Park is currently the outermost reach of Santa Fe's River Trail project. The park's location marks an intersection of the historic Camino Real de Tierra Adentro trail (The Royal Road of the Interior), a principal trade route that linked New Mexico to Spanish-occupied New Spain and operated from the late 16 th century for nearly 300 years. Directions Airport Rd. East before crossing Hwy. 599, take a right on Constellation Dr. Parking area is located at the end of Constellation Dr.	No RSVP No fee	Easy hike. Approximately 2.0 miles Flat
Cactus and Succulent Society of New Mexico educational hike at Arroyo Hondo Open Space.	Date: May 9th Time: 9:30 am – 10:30 am This hike is subject to the catci blooming period, and the date may change.	This hike will with some luck coincide with bloom times of many of the cactus varieties along the trail. Your guides will identify and provide fun facts about the variety of cactus species found in the Arroyo Hondo Open Space. Directions Arroyo Hondo – Upper Parking Area located at the end of Old Agua Fria Rd. From the Old Pecos Trail (OPT) exit of I-25 drive, drive South until OPT dead ends at the stop sign at Old Agua Fria Road East. Turn left onto Old Agua Fria Rd. E, drive over cattle-guard where dirt turns into pavement,	No RSVP No fee	Easy hike. Approximately 1.5 miles. 400 feet elevation.

Santa Fe Botanical Gardens hike to Placer Peak in the Ortiz Mountain Preserve	Date: May 19, 2015 Time: Meet at 8:30 The Ortiz Mountains Educational Preserve is located approximately 30 miles southwest of Santa Fe. The travel time from Santa Fe to the gate is nearly an hour.	The Ortiz Mountains Educational Preserve consists of 1,350 acres in the Ortiz Mountains, including Placer Peak, the highest peak in the Ortiz range at 8,897 feet. The Preserve contains several historic mine shafts from the New Mexico gold rush in the early mid-nineteenth century. The Preserve is located approximately 30 miles southwest of Santa Fe off the Turquoise Trail scenic byway. Visit http://www.santafebotanicalgarden.org/visit-us/ortiz-mountains-educational-preserve/ for more information. Please pay close attention to the sections on GUIDELINES, LOGISTICS, WEATHER, GEAR/FOOD and FACILITIES. Directions From Santa Fe, take Cerrillos Road/Highway 14 south towards Cerrillos. Continue on Highway 14 past the turnoff for the village of Cerrillos, across the Galisteo River bridge, about a half mile further to the turnoff on the left for Goldmine Road/County Road 55. Note the collection of houses and a sign for the Preserve at this turnoff. Drive southeast along Goldmine Road/County Road 55 to where it ends (about six miles from Highway 14).	Maximum 15 Contact melohmann@santafeco.untynm.gov for reservation	Difficult hike. Approximately 8 miles. 2400 ft. Elevation to Placer Peak
Arroyo Hondo Open with great views that provide inspiration and links to the long history of the area.	Date: May 30th, 2015 Time: 10:30 am - noon	Hike the Arroyo Hondo Open Space with local trail advocate and the site's trail steward, Dr. Bill Johnson. Learn how Arroyo Hondo Open Space came to be and explore the rich history of the Arroyo Hondo region, including the flood of 1912. Directions Arroyo Hondo – Upper Parking Area located at the end of Old Agua Fria Rd. From the Old Pecos Trail (OPT) exit of I-25 drive, drive South until OPT dead ends at the stop sign at Old Agua Fria Road East. Turn left onto Old Agua Fria Rd. E, drive over cattle-guard where dirt turns into pavement, parking is 200 yards on the right.	No RSVP No fee	Easy hike. Approximately 1.5 miles. 400 feet elevation.
Cerrillos Hills State	Date: June 6, 2015 Time: 11:00 am	Located in an area with over 1,000 years of mining history Cerrillos Hills State Park is home	No RSVP $5 per	Moderate hike. Hike will be

Park guided tour and local mining history	Cerrillos Hills State Park Main Entrance	to mines worked by a variety of cultures. Native, Spanish and Territorial miners found turquoise, galena, silver, copper, iron, manganese, zinc and other semi-precious ores here. Over five miles of trails take you past historic mine sites that tell the story of how the little hills played a giant role in the settlement of New Mexico. For general information about Cerrillos Hills State Park please visit: http://www.emnrd.state.nm.us/SPD/cerrilloshillssatepark.html For directions: http://www.emnrd.state.nm.us/SPD/images/locationmap.jpg For a map of the park, visit: http://www.emnrd.state.nm.us/SPD/documents/CHSPParkMap2014.pdf Directions Half a mile north of Cerrillos village on County road 59	vehicle	approximately 3.5 miles with a mid-point drop off for those wanting to end sooner
Rail Trail Bike Cruise	Date: TBA	A fun leisurely (pedal only) bike cruise along the Santa Fe Rail Trail from the Rabbit Road Trailhead to Eldorado and back. This ride will feature the recently completed improvements on the trail between Ave Vista and Ave Eldorado plus extensive repairs and improvements made in the past year.	No RSVP No Fee	Easy to Moderate ride. Slow paced. Approximately 20 miles Flat to rolling hills.